Education vs. Ignorance.

Much has already been said, written and published on the subject of education and yet, I think, too much cannot be said along this line. Any country's prosperity depends upon the intelligence of its citizens, but I do not mean to say that it is impossible for an ignorant person to be prosperous, yet I do say that no uneducated person can fully enjoy life. To the uneducated there is no melody in the music of birds, no beauty in blooming flowers, no rays of sunshine to shake out the gloomy places along life's pathway. Even the stability of a republican form of government, like ours purports to be, cannot long endure where ignorance predominates. The nation's glory depends upon brain and not muscle, and this is the experience of those who have traveled far along the road of finance that brain work yields more profitable returns than physical work. The two together, however, when working in harmony invariably bring better and more substantial results. The student of history after long and careful research tells us that those who have carved their names highest on fame's eternal banner were men who burned the oil of midnight and who took particular pains in mental study. If the prosperity of our county is to continue, if we are to continue to exceed and excel those of our sister counties, if we are to maintain our prestige in every way, as heretofore, we must continue to pound away at our mental work. We cannot lay too much stress upon it. It is our star of hope. I am glad that we have as valuable an auxiliary as the Mountain Eagle to visit our homes, pouring into them each week its fresh fountains of hope and encouragement. The intelligent already know and recognize its worth and the careless and indolent will learn it in time, perhaps after it is too late.

Faithfully Yours,
HARRISON BOGGS.

Your advertisement to the effect that I have procured henchmen to write letters to my colleagues to get letters from them to publish, is a concocted to cover up the unusually favorable and unanimously good reports of my record which have been brought out by you and your friends in your attempt to find something to use against me. I will pay $100 reward and quit the race if you will show one such case as you charge. Will you quit if your advertisement is false? D. C. Edwards.

Money you blow in quits working for you.

The promising young man is nearly always in debt.

No man has a monopoly on wisdom—even the fool has some.

Food for gossip isn't the kind for filling an empty stomach.

The wife of a handsome man is never too busy to watch him.

You've got a kick coming if you deserve the mean things said about you.

If a pair of shoes are too small they may fit a woman, but if too large she has a fit.

A young man who speaks from experience says it is easier to keep company with a girl than it is to keep a wife.

The latch key was invented by the devil.

Even if you take time by the forelock it will be a wig and pull off.

It doesn't take a fire department to put out a burning love affair.

The only thing that keeps forever without cold storage is scandal.

Letter From Ned Ison.

Dear Editor: From time to time, as you are well aware, I have prepared several articles for publication in the Eagle. They were all written for the benefit of the public. In every one of my articles I have tried my very best to make myself thoroughly understood. At no time did I ever have a thought of offending anyone, but rather hoped I was pleasing all. My whole purpose was to please and if possible give a word of advice to the boys and girls of our country that they might grow up into good and intelligent men and women.

In this little article I want to say to all who might have thought that I was trying to "throw off" on the women when I wrote, "Putting the best foot forward," that no such a thought ever entered my mind. My whole desire was to please and in the meantime weave a thread of advice to everyone.

In the future I shall write an article on "The Value of Books," and I hope in that to please you all.

Notice!

As has been stated heretofore, we want it distinctly and positively understood that the Eagle is for neither Caleb Powers or Don C. Edwards in their race for the nomination for Congress in this district. We have no interest whatever in either of the gentlemen. They are both in the business of politics, both advertising for business, and what either of them do through the Eagle is done the same as a merchant or any other business man would do it—by paying the cash at certain space prices. We want all our readers of the political faith of the candidates to make up their minds when it comes to voting and vote as they please. We are not in the least concerned as to which shall be. If this statement don't suffice nothing will.

How often do we hear people say, "where in the world do all the flies come from?" It is easy to tell. POEM?

(By the Office Cat)

Tell me not in mournful numbers
That the town is full of gloom,
For the man's a crank that slumbers,
In these glorious days of boom.
Life is real, life is earnest,
And the grave is not its goal—
Every dollar that thou turnest
Helps to make the Eagle roll.
But enjoyment and not sorrow
Is our destined end or way
If you have no money, borrow—
Take the Eagle home today.
Lives of great men all remind us
We can win immortal fame,
Let us leave the clumps behind
us,
And we'll get there just the same.
In this world's broad field of battle,
In the bivouac of life,
Let us make the dry bones rattle—
Invest something for your wife!
Let us be up and doing
With a heart for any fate,
Still achieving, still pursuing—
Booming early, booming late.

Caleb Powers Comes and Speaks

Except on one occasion the biggest crowd that ever came to town to attend a political gathering came last Saturday. Caleb Powers was billed to speak and the news had spread to the remotest sections of the county. Early in the morning the crowd began to gather and by 1 o'clock the streets were almost "chuck" full of people. Of course all were not for Powers for Congress but it looked like at least 5 to 1 of those present were for him. Several hundred people met the candidate at the bridge and with lusty throats extended to him a great welcome. When the speaking hour arrived the Courthouse bell was rung and in a short while the big room was crowded almost to the suffocating point. The late arrivals were forced to remain outside. For over two hours Mr. Powers entertained the big crowd. Cheer after cheer echoed through the room and at the close of the speech hundreds rushed to shake the hand of the candidate. At least 600 people were in town from the country, 500 of these were perhaps in the Court-room and heard the speech. From what we could hear and observe we estimate that anywhere from 450 to 500 of all voters present were for Powers. It was said in the Eagle last week that likely as not Mr. Edwards would speak on this occasion and it is probable that many who are not for Powers came to town on this account. If such was the case they were disappointed as Mr. Edwards was not present.

Some Thoughts on Life.

No spot on earth can be brighter than a happy home. This, from what I have heard and read, I imagine to be true, since about ten years ago the sunshine of our life, the happiness of home, was broken up by the loss of both father and mother and since that time I have been forced to feed on imagination alone. When the father and mother, brothers and sisters are kind to each other there undoubtedly is a sacredness in the home that cannot be compared to anything else on earth. When jars and schisms enter the home the change comes and all is so different. The flowers of life begin to fade and thorns spring up on every side and the paradise of earth becomes a Sahara. Therefore, let us all be kind to each other and ready to help each other to do the right. We are crowded pretty thick upon life's great thoroughfare and can't well help elbowing each other as we pass along. Ninety-nine times out of a hundred no harm is intended. We are like thousands of little floats out upon the bosom of the great deep. They are constantly butting into each other and so are we. The great deep is not thinking of these little floats and doesn't intend to hurt or disturb them; so the world is to us. It was created for us and means, if anything, to treat us kindly. If we get into brawls and whirlpools we are partly to blame and not the world. Its sensible for us to make the very most of life, and he who strives hardest tho' he may not wear laurel blossoms on his lapel will in most cases be a happy man.

Mr. Editor, if there is a single tint of anything worth while to any of our friends pick it out and publish it, otherwise consign it to its proper doom.

After The Grippe
"I am much pleased, to be able to write and thank you for what Cardui has done for me," writes Mrs. Sarah J. Gilliland, of Siler City, N. C.
"Last February, I had the Grippe, which left me in bad shape. Before that, I had been bothered with female trouble, for ten years, and nothing seemed to cure it. At last, I began to take Cardui. I have taken only three bottles, but it has done me more good than all the doctors or than any other medicine I ever took."

Take CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic
For the after-effects of any serious illness, like the Grip, Cardui is the best tonic you can use. It builds strength, steadies the nerves, improves the appetite, regulates irregularities and helps bring back the natural glow of health.
Cardui is your best friend, if you only knew it. Think of the thousands of ladies whom Cardui has helped! What could possibly prevent it from helping you? Remember you cannot get the benefit of the Cardui ingredients in any other medicine, for they are not for sale in any drug store except in the Cardui bottle. Try Cardui.

POINTED SKULLS.

Admired by Some Tribes, Which Secure Them by Head Binding.
The egg shaped heads of some of the natives of Malekula, in the Hebrides, were once thought to be naturally conical. For that reason scientific men decided that the Malekulans were in the lowest rung of the human ladder.

Later it was found that the conical heads were produced as the Chinese women distorted their feet—by binding them in infancy. The egg shaped head is still fashionable in Malekula, where some extraordinary results are achieved.

"A conical head," says a writer in the National Geographic Magazine, "retreats from the forehead in such a manner that one is amazed to know the owner of this remarkable profile preserves his or her proper senses, such as they are. I could not hear, however, that the custom was supposed to affect the intellect in any way."

"The conical shape is produced by winding strong sinnet cord spirally about the heads of young babies and tightening the coils from time to time. A piece of plaited mat is first put on the head and the cord is coiled over this, so as to give it a good purchase. The crown of the head is left to develop in the upward and backward fashion that is so much admired."

"One fears the poor babies suffer very much from the process. The child I saw was fretful and crying and looked as if it were constantly in pain. But the mother, forgetting for the moment her fear of the strange white woman, showed it to me quite proudly, pointing out the cords with a smile.
"She had a normally shaped head herself, and it seemed that she had suffered by her parents' neglect of this important matter, for she was married to a man who was of no particular account. A young girl who was standing beside her had evidently had a more careful mother, for her head was almost sugar loaf shaped. It is interesting to know that this well brought up young woman had married a chief!"

Poetry, Painting and Furniture.
Rossetti insisted on everybody painting. Books, he said, were "no use to a painter except to prop up models upon in difficult positions, and then they might be very useful." "If any man has any poetry in him," was another saying of Rossetti's, "he should paint, for it has all been said and written, and they have scarcely begun to paint it," a saying, by the way, which may be found also in the third volume of "Modern Painters." Morris obeyed the master and took to painting. Even when Morris took to making furniture that craft was at first regarded under Rossetti's influence as merely a means of providing spaces for pictorial decoration. Morris built some enormous chairs, "such as Barbarossa might have sat in," said Rossetti, who proceeded to paint their backs with subjects from Morris' poems.

To Caleb Powers

Your advertisement to the effect that I call you a thief is a wilful and malicious falsehood, and the man who wrote it knew it at the time.

D. C. Edwards.

Caleb Powers instructed his solicitors to deceive the public by showing them padded or false lists, and he is trying to deceive the voters by having his henchmen send in false reports of Edwards' meetings.

To Caleb Powers

Your advertisement to the effect that I was for J. C. W. Beckham against W. O. Bradley for the United States Senate is a lie out of the whole cloth, and I will pay $100 reward and quit the race if you can substantiate it.

D. C. Edwards.

D. C. Edwards paid his own expenses and made speeches for many weeks in the Willson campaign in order that Caleb Powers might have his liberty. Caleb Powers charged the Republicans of Johnson county $500 for one political speech. Which is the better Republican?

To Caleb Powers

The statement you are circulating signed 'A Leslie county Republican' to the effect that he visited my meetings all through Harlan, Letcher, Perry, Leslie, Clay, Owsley and Jackson, is a manufactured story for the purpose of deceiving the people and I will give $10 for the full name, postoffice address and photograph of the liar who wrote it. There is room for it in the rogues' gallery.

D. C. Edwards.

Caleb Powers admits that he had money which had been donated to him out of interest in 1905. The books of the Defense Fund Committee at Louisville show that they paid the expenses of the only trial he ever had after 1903. Will Caleb tell what he has done with the people's money?

To Caleb Powers

In your advertisements you are charging that the Democrats are for me and insinuating that I have been supporting Democrats or Democratic measures. If you can show where I have ever voted and acted for and with the Democratic party in or out of Congress I will quit this race. If you cannot then you will have to quit after September 15.

D. C. Edwards.

Caleb Powers grows frantic in his advertisements and speeches because he says the Democrats are supporting Edwards, yet he boasts that 50,000 of them signed his petition for pardon. Do you not know, Mr. Powers, that no Republican was ever elected to a state office in Kentucky without Democratic votes? Did not the Democrats help elect Bradley and his ticket in '97? Did they not help elect Taylor and his ticket in '99? Did they not help elect Willson and his ticket in 1907?

Could Bradley have been elected to the United States Senate without Democratic votes? Do you charge that these men are corrupt or not good Republicans because they received some Democratic support?

D. C. Edwards contributed of his own means and helped to raise more than $1,500 for the defense of Caleb Powers, canvassed many counties for Willson in 1907 that Powers might be pardoned. Saw the Governor two days after he was elected and asked him to pardon Powers. The Governor says in a letter to Senator Catron on April 4, 1908, that they wanted Powers pardoned. Edwards offered to circulate Powers' petition for pardon in Congress and L. R. Stealy wrote to that effect, but Powers ignored it.

The Stark Year Book for 1910

is ready to mail. It will be sent to any person interested in fruit-growing on receipt of 7 cents to cover postage. The Stark Year Book for 1910 represents an entirely new idea in nurserymen's literature—it is a work of art as well as a catalogue of Stark Nursery products. Within its covers are 32 full-page illustrations of fruits and flowers, representing 175 varieties, done in four colors, and exactly reproducing nature. 84 pages are devoted to descriptions, prices, and records.
Stark Delmon, the apple that has revolutionized orchard planting and established a new standard of apple values (selling at $10.00 per bushel box this year); Stark King David, another apple of wondrous quality and merit; Stark King Philip, a hardy black grape of California grape quality, and dozens of the very best things in the horticultural world are fully described, illustrated, and priced.
To any one planting one tree or many, of fruits or ornamental, this book is of incalculable value—a horticultural text-book—a guide to proper selection.
Stark trees have stood the supreme test of actual planting for 85 years—they are the yard-stick by which all other nursery products are measured—they are the first choice of this country's most successful orchardists. The success of the orchard is dependent on the kind and quality of tree planted. Stark varieties are the best of the best. Our record of 85 years of successful selling is a positive guarantee of tree quality.
Before you decide to buy, send 7 cents for the Stark Year Book—it is today before the edition is exhausted.

EDWARDS' IN KNOX

Mr. Edwards has made a tour through Knox county and read his letters to those who gathered to hear him discuss needed legislation. His advance agent, M.G. Hignite went over the county in advance of his chief to drum up a crowd. Hignite is better known in Knox than elsewhere in the district, and at Artemus, a place of 500 or 600 people, Hignite had worked up a crowd of 9 to hear Edwards, 8 of whom were for Powers. At Callahans he got 22 voters out, 17 for Powers and 5 for Edwards. At Beech Springs there were 10 Republicans, and at Little Brush Creek 18, 14 of whom were for Powers.

While Edwards was in the home county of Mr. Powers, Mr. Powers was in the home county of Mr. Edwards and we give below a summary of his tour in Laurel and leave it to you to draw your own conclusions as to the relative strength of these men in the home counties of the candidates.

"Laurel Co. for Powers"

"Caleb Powers completed his tour of the county Tuesday at Felt's schoolhouse. He has been given such an ovation wherever he has spoken as has seldom been accorded any candidate. Powers clubs were formed at various places where he spoke, for instance one at Oakley of 90 members, one at McWhorter of 91 members, one at Creech schoolhouse in McWhorter precinct of 45 members, one at Bush of 131 members, one at Camp Ground of 103 members, one at Lily of 87 members, one at Felt's schoolhouse in Lily precinct of 42 members, one at Keavy in Edwards' old home precinct of 70 members, and others.

"The total enrollment in the Powers Clubs formed at Powers' speakings was more than 900 voters, nearly 1,000 now enrolled in the Powers Clubs. No speaker was made and no clubs formed in six precincts of the county some of which are large Republican precincts and Powers strongholds. As proof that all Powers supporters did not join clubs at the speakings, after forming a club of 45 at Creech schoolhouse, the Powers men formed a line and counted 61 voters, said to be every Republican voter on the ground.

"Powers will carry the county overwhelmingly."

One by One

The predictions of Edwards' benchmen are a gloomier. They said for instance when Powers was making speeches and before Edwards got home from Congress, that when Edwards got home and got in the harness that things would change 'round and that Powers' little boom would burst into bubbles. False prophets they have proven themselves to be. Tremendous crowds of enthusiastic people still flock to hear Caleb Powers, while Edwards' crowds are small and indifferent, unless Democratic. At Bad Creek in Leslie county, no one turned out to hear Edwards speak. Not a soul honored him with his presence at Calloway in Bell county; three Democrats were all that graced the occasion at Marrowbone in Leslie county. Only 12 voters heard Edwards at the county seat of Jackson Co. (Jim Moore's county) while only 9 turned out to hear Edwards at Artemus, in Knox county (Powers' county). Powers was addressing big crowds in Edwards' county, and as proof of this, a Powers Republican Club of 90 members was formed at Powers' speaking place at Cross Roads. The other day a Powers club of 91 at McWhorter, a club of 87 at Lily, a club of 131 voters at Bush and 103 at Camp Ground and all these in the home county of D.C. Edwards.

D. C. Edwards,

in trying to explain why the Democrats were supporting him in his race against Caleb Powers, said in a speech the other day, "Do you know that there never was a Republican State ticket elected without the aid of Democratic votes? Governor Bradley could never have been elected Governor. Governor Willson could never have been elected Governor, nor could Bradley have been elected to the United States Senate without the aid of Democratic votes." Don, you don't seem to understand that this is a Republican primary that you are running in. Although the State Central Committee 'padded' you across the expanse of your trousers and told you that this was a Republican primary and that no Democrat could vote in same, you still seem to have Democratic wheels in your head. We suppose you know that the Democrats did not help to nominate either Governor Bradley or Gov. Willson. After they were nominated both received some Democratic support, but the Democrats did not vote or have anything to do in making the nomination. Such a thing has never been heard of in Congressional or State races, Don, until you favored them voting in this Republican primary. You favored their voting and we can prove it on you. The Democrats always want to see the weakest Republican nominated. Don, the Democrats want you nominated; you are the weakest Republican.

D. C. Edwards Says

that Caleb Powers should be defeated for Congress because Powers asked one of Edwards' Federal office holders, M.G. Hignite, to give up his position to Powers' brother in law, Mr. Green. That would be an awful crime, wouldn't it, to disturb one of Edwards' Federal office holders in his position? Powers had made his campaign, spent his money and had been elected Superintendent of Schools for Knox county. Powers turned over the fruits of victory, the victory and the office to Mr. Hignite. Powers later helped to re-elect him, and then endorsed him and helped to get him appointed to the position he now holds—Deputy Collector. When Powers got into trouble he needed help. He only asked Hignite to do for him what he had done for Hignite. He gave up his office to Hignite when Hignite had his freedom and was able to help himself. When Powers was deprived of his liberty and fighting for his life he needed Hignite's help. He needed his office for his brother in law. Hignite refused to stand by Powers as Powers had stood by him; and because Powers asked Hignite to do for him what he had done for Hignite—no more and no less—Powers is branded by Edwards as a bad man and unfit to go to Congress. Hignite, Edwards' office holder, is the ingrate and should be reprimanded instead of praised by his chief.

To Caleb Powers

Your advertisement to the effect that I call you a thief is a wilful and malicious falsehood, and the man who wrote it knew it at the time.

D. C. Edwards.

Caleb Powers instructed his solicitors to deceive the public by showing them padded or false lists, and he is trying to deceive the voters by having his henchmen read in false reports of Edwards' meetings.

To Caleb Powers

Your advertisement to the effect that I was for J.C.W. Beckham against W. O. Bradley for the United States Senate is a lie out of the whole cloth, and I will pay $100 reward and quit the race if you can substantiate it.

D. C. Edwards.

D.C. Edwards paid his own expenses and made speeches for many weeks in the Willson campaign in order that Caleb Powers might have his liberty. Caleb Powers charged the Republicans of Johnson county $500 for one political speech. Which is the better Republican?

To Caleb Powers

The statement you are circulating signed 'A Leslie county Republican' to the effect that he visited my meetings all through Harlan, Letcher, Perry, Leslie, Clay, Owsley and Jackson, is a manufactured story for the purpose of deceiving the people and I will give $100 for the full name, postoffice address and photograph of the liar who wrote it. There is room for it in the rogues' gallery.

D. C. Edwards.

Caleb Powers admits that he had money which had been donated to him out of interest in 1903. The books of the Defense Fund Committee at Louisville show that they paid the expenses of the only trial he ever had after 1903. Will (Caleb) tell what he has done with the people's money?

To Caleb Powers

In your advertisements you are charging that the Democrats are for me and insinuating that I have been supporting Democrats or Democratic measures. If you can show where I have ever voted and acted for and with the Democratic party in or out of Congress I will quit this race. If you cannot then you will have to quit after September 15.

D. C. Edwards.

Caleb Powers grows frantic in his advertisements and speeches because he says the Democrats are supporting Edwards, yet he boasts that 50,000 of them signed his petition for pardon. Do you not know, Mr. Powers, that no Republican was ever elected to a state office in Kentucky without Democratic votes? Did not the Democrats help elect Bradley and his ticket in '95? Did they not help elect Taylor and his ticket in '98? Did they not help elect Wilson and his ticket in 1907?

Could Bradley have been elected to the United States Senate without Democratic votes? Do you charge that these men are corrupt or not good Republicans because they received some Democratic support?

D.C. Edwards contributed of his own means and helped to raise more than $1,500 for the defense of Caleb Powers, canvassed many counties for Willson in 1907 that Powers might be pardoned, saw the Governor two days after he was elected and asked him to pardon Powers. The Governor says in a letter to Senator Catron on April 4, 1908, that they wanted Powers pardoned.

Edwards offered to circulate Powers' petition for pardon in Congress and R. Stealy wrote to that effect, but Powers ignored it.
